Organisation Overview

The Department of Planning, Transport and Infrastructure (DPTI) works as part of our community to deliver effective planning policy, efficient transport and social and economic infrastructure. This is done by working as a values based organisation harnessing the diversity of our purposes and our people to improve the lifestyle of all South Australians. By working together we capitalize on a unique and powerful opportunity – to connect with every part of our community and deliver positive outcomes every day.

Organisational Values and Personal Behaviours

Our organisational values help us to focus on how we conduct our business, rather than simply the result. They provide a framework for decisions and actions that ultimately affect the quality of service we deliver to the South Australian community. A range of behaviours have been identified to support the values.

- Collaboration - Interacts and communicates with others in a positive, clear and honest way; shares knowledge, information and lessons learnt with others; works in partnership with and is willing to engage with colleagues.
- Honesty - Interacts and communicates with others in a positive, clear and honest way; is reliable, does what they say they will and ensures decisions are implemented; has the courage to admit mistakes and works to find solutions.
- Excellence – takes prompt action to make corrections; goes the extra mile; is committed to continuous improvement and embraces change; accepts feedback in a positive way and acts on it; is courteous and open in dealing with others; ensures they understand what is expected.
