Hallett Cove Station to Hallett Cove Beach Station

Project overview

As part of the State Government's decade long $2 billion investment in public transport, Hallett Cove station will receive a multi-million dollar makeover.

Based on the successful recent upgrade of the Oaklands Station the upgrade of Hallett Cove will include:

- > an architecturally designed canopy shelter
- > a platform realignment (to reduce height and distance gaps between platform and trains)
- > installation of access ramps and handrails
- > improved lighting and Closed Circuit Television (CCTV) security systems
- > improved walking and cycling links with the stations
- > enhanced landscaping
- > provision of additional car parking at the stations.

Shuttle Bus Service Hallett Cove – Hallett Cove Beach

Shuttle bus services (688) will be provided between Hallett Cove and Hallett Cove Beach Stations. Rail connections will be available at Hallett Cove Beach Station to and from the City.

Noarlunga Train Special Temporary Weekend Timetable

Special temporary weekend train services on the Noarlunga Line will operate for the duration of the Hallett Cove Station closure.

Weekday train services will run as close as possible to the normal scheduled timetable.

681-685 Special Temporary Weekend Bus Timetable

These services will operate to a special weekend timetable, so they align with train services at Hallett Cove Beach Station on weekends.

Bicycle and wheelchair users

Shuttle buses accessible by wheelchairs will be provided wherever possible, subject to availability. If you have a requirement for public transport to be accessible by wheelchair, contact 1300 782 454.

While shuttle bus services are unable to cater for bicycles, bike lockers are available for hire by calling Adelaide Metro on 1300 311 108. Alternatively, cyclists are encouraged to contact the project team on 1300 782 454 to discuss their individual needs.
