

Main North Road and Nottage Terrace Intersection Upgrade

Dear Resident/ Property Owner/ Business Owner

The Australian and South Australian Governments have announced $19 million joint funding for the upgrade of the Main North Road and Nottage Terrace intersection, with the cost shared equally.

The Australian Government commitment is part of the Commonwealth Urban Congestion Fund. The State Government's contribution addresses recommendations of the State Government's Keeping Metro Traffic Moving Report. The report identifies this intersection as a priority location for treatments that address road congestion and keep traffic flowing.

The intersection of Main North Road and Nottage Terrace plays a vital role in moving traffic from the North East to the South, bypassing Adelaide's CBD. During 2013 to 2017, there have been 32 reported crashes, of which ten were casualty crashes. The upgrade will improve travel times, improve network reliability, and improve economic productivity and safety for all users.

Community and stakeholder engagement forms an important part of this upgrade and as planning progresses there will be extensive consultation with land owners, businesses and residents to help inform the preferred concept and design.

Early works are planned to start in 2020 following detailed planning and design through the second half of 2019, with project completion expected in 2022.

Have your say

Stakeholder and community engagement forms an important part of the planning study and we encourage you to have your say (see our contact details below). We will consider all feedback and concerns as we conduct the wider investigative process to identify solutions that balance the needs of various stakeholders.

DPTI will continue to work with stakeholders as solutions are developed.
